Young men, boys and others who are or have been in the habit of playing ball in the streets are hereby notified that they will have to quit the practice. STATE POLITICS.
Views of Some of the State Papers.
 The newspapers are beginning to talk politics, and from our latest exchanges the JOURNAL excerpts a few interesting articles:
NARROW GAUGE STATEMEN.
 Under this heading the Winnemucca Silver State, of the 24th, says:
 C. C. Powning, of Reno, who is United States Surveyor General of Nevada, is a Republican and editor of the Nevada State JOURNAL. The JOURNAL has the temerity to publish the fact that Senator Fair had been exerting himself to have mail facilities increased in this State; to have the Carson Mint re-opened, and to have work commenced on the public building at Carson, also to refer occasionally to the fact that General Sparks, Commissioner of the Land Office, is doing all in his power to prevent land sharks from grabbing up what little of the public domain is left. Though the JOURNAL did nothing more than publish the news, there are bigoted partisans, whose range of vision is so clouded by prejudice that they can see nothing good outside the party to which they happen to be allied, who lecture General Powning for recording facts in his paper, and threaten him with excommunication if he persists in that course. These "narrow gauge statesmen" seem to think it a grievous offense against party for a newspaper claiming to be Republican to publish the fact that a Democratic Senator is doing what he can for the benefit of the whole people of the State without distinction of politics. This is running partisanship into the ground, and such criticisms of General Powning's course will make him friends, instead of enemies, among the liberal minded of all parties though he does nothing more than give the news. If General Powning has given Senator Fair, General Sparks, or any other Democrat credit to which they are not entitled, why do not those fault-finders point it out and substantiate their assertions, that he almost advocates Democratic principles so as to hold office as long as possible under Democratic rule?
FOR GOVERNOR.
 The Carson Tribune is uncertain about the Governorship. It remarks:
 It is generally conceded that Hon. T. B. Riekey is the coming man for the gubernatorial nomination on the Republican ticket and that his support will far exceed any other yet spoken of. Mr. Riekey is an old Nevada; has done and is still doing a heavy business in the cattle line; is thoroughly known and appreciated throughout the whole State, and possessed of strong will power and would, if elected, be Governor de facto as well as de jure.
 The Tribune desires to see the strongest man of the party nominated and if Mr. R. is that man he will receive the unwavering support of this paper. Four years ago the Republican party was handicapped by the nomination of one of the most unpopular men in the State and the consequence was a disgraceful defeat, wherein if the favorite of the time, Kinkead, had received the nomination the State would not have been compelled to suffer as it has. The Tribune will take especial pains by personal observation to ascertain the feeling concerning Mr. Riekey and from time to time make known the state of affairs as collated.
COMMITTEE WORK.
 The Beville speaks as follows of the work of the Republican State Central Committee:
 Last Thursday the Republican State Committee held a meeting in Virginia City and set the political pot boiling. The only real contest occurred upon the location of the State Convention, Elko and Carson being the rival nominations. The Eastern delegates favored Elko and the Westerners stood by the capital city. The Carson champions claimed that the Democratic influences now at work there made it problematic as to whether Ormsby county could be carried this Fall unless the State Convention was held there, etc. The Eastern delegates bootied at this pleading the baby act and reminded the delegates that the Eastern counties were not so prone to Republicanism and naturally needed all the help they could get and besides that the East was entitled to it anyhow. The balloting showed that Elko and Carson were about equal and that the Humboldt votes held the balance of power. Mr. Harvey who voted these two votes did not seem to grasp the situation and change his votes from their useless support of Winnemucca to Elko on either the first or second ballot and allowed a third vote to be taken, which gave Carson the convention by one majority. Lincoln county sent its two proxies to Storey county men and they voted for Carson. Lander's two votes were held by a Washoe representative but were both recorded for Elko. The convention will have 144 members, the representation being based upon the Blaine vote of two years ago on a ratio of one to each fifty or fractional part. Lander gets eleven delegates and Storey leads off with thirty. The convention will be held September 24th and the primaries September 11th.
NON-RESIDENCE.
 The Carson Tribune favors a "home"

man for Senator, saying:
 Much talk is made concerning the non-residence of certain gentlemen who are prominent candidates for the U. S. Senate, and whilst it is true that only one aspirant has had a continuous residence in the State that should certainly not be the only deconsideratum. Hon. W. M. Stewart is one of Nevada's oldest residents and two large buildings, one here and one in Virginia City attest the fact. Lack of professional business called the gentlemen from our State, but now he returns, builds another expensive dwelling house and spends more money in Carson than all the candidates in all the State. Next comes Hon. R. Daggett, most certainly a non-resident and seemingly not making any attempt towards permanent residence, and Hon. Thos. Wren refuses to run for the position, the only other Republican aspirant is Gen. C. C. Powning. Now it is a recognized fact that an able man one known to the great men of the East should be sent to Washington from this State, because he is needed at this time and it would seem that actual residence ought not to be set up against ability, political enumen and other qualities so much needed.
SENATORIAL.
 The Austin Beville says:
 Both R. M. Daggett and W. M. Stewart are out and out candidates for U. S. Senator. This we have from each of these gentlemen personally. Mr. Daggett is quite confident of success and will be out this way during June to see the lay of the land. He and his family are living in Virginia City and he is in excellent health and spirits. He will make a spirited fight and will gather his friends around him and win the prize if possible.
 Stewart is equally confident. He has built a magnificent residence in Carson City and his family are all now residing there. He is fitting up a fine law office and is laying his wires for success. Mr. Stewart is a hard worker and seems to be a prominent target for criticism just now, especially in Western Nevada. We have heard much pro and con and out of the mass of talk it is difficult to form much of an opinion yet as to the outlook.
 But little is known west of Mr. Wren's candidacy and few know just how to count him. He does not seem to be doing anything and those who generally keep themselves posted are at sea regarding his plans.
 C. C. Powning is making himself very numerous and is rustling around as hard as he knows how.
Rights of Colored Citizens.
 New York, May 24.—The Enterprise of this city, edited by colored men, prints the following letter from ex-Senator Conkling. "I may say I know no better place on earth where the African race has a better right to be than in the United States of America, especially in those States best suited to it, nor do I know of any one whose right is clearer to be where he pleases in this land than that of the American citizens of African descent. To act upon the belief that anywhere in this country a citizen is not safe in rights of person or property because of the color of his skin is to cast a stigma on the American people and on the American name—a stigma which, if just, would disgrace our country wherever civilization exists. Never, until time proves it, will I believe that such barbarism can be."
 Carefully compiled returns just received at San Francisco from the thirty principal wheat growing counties of California place the total wheat average for the present season at 3,450,000 acres, with a heavy average yield. The condition of the crops was pronounced excellent. If there are no serious drawbacks during the next thirty days, the total wheat yield of the State will be fully 60,000,000 bushels. The barley crop is also unusually large, being estimated at 38,000,000 bushels.
 The Grand Jury of Ormsby county have found a true bill against Matt. Brannan, charged with arson in setting fire to the residence of T. B. Riekey at Carson.
 In Turin a new Raphael, it is believed, has been found. It is a profile portrait, and bears the words, "Urbino, 1497."
NEW TO-DAY.
NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.
 THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE CALLIFORNIA Pig Syrup Company are hereby notified that, pursuant to the By-laws of said company, the annual meeting of its stockholders will be held at its office, in J. J. Quinn's store, in block P, in Reno, Washoe county, Nevada, on Saturday, the 12th day of June, 1886, at 2 o'clock P.
